

NOVA SCOTIA CROWN SHARE LAND LEGACY TRUST

This Trust Indenture made as of the 28th day of March 2024

Between: His Majesty the King in Right of the Province of Nova Scotia as represented by the Ministers of Environment and Climate Change and Natural Resources and Renewables

(the “Province”)

-and-

Amanda Lavers (Chair), Don McNeil, and Dale Smith

WHEREAS the Nova Scotia Crown Share Land Legacy Trust was established by Trust Indenture dated March 31, 2008, a copy of which is established as Schedule “A” (the Original Trust Indenture”;

AND WHEREAS paragraph 22.03 of the Trust Indenture provides that the Province and the Trustees reserve the right at any time and from time to time to amend, in whole or in part, any of all of the provision so this Trust Indenture by mutual consent provided that no amendment shall be permitted which affects the settlement of the funds in the trust or renders the settlement revocable;

AND WHEREAS by Trustee Appointment dated November 18, 2015 William Freedman was no longer available to act as a Trustee, and Don McNeil of Bedford, Nova Scotia was appointed as a Trustee in accordance with clause 14.0 of the Indenture, a copy of which is established as Schedule “B”;

AND WHEREAS by Trustee Appointment dated October 25, 2023, Karen Beazley resigned as Trustee and Chair and Amanda Lavers of Caledonia, Nova Scotia was appointed as a Trustee in accordance with clause 14.0 of the Original Trust Indenture and named Chair. A copy of which is established as Schedule “C”;

AND WHEREAS this Original Trust Indenture was amended by consent on March 20, 2020, and again on October 14, 2022, copies which are attached as Schedule “D & E” respectively.

AND WHEREAS the October 14, 2022, amendment amended paragraph 17(b) of the Trust Indenture to have the trust terminate on March 31, 2024.

AND WHEREAS the Province and the Trustees acknowledge the importance of ensuring that Trust funds are expended to greatest conservation effect and that the timeline for termination of the Indenture is insufficient to allow for the expenditure of all of the Trust Property, and the Trustees and Province therefore seek to extend the termination date to March 31, 2031.

AND WHEREAS the Province and Trustees for further clarity seek to consolidate the Trust Indenture with the past amendments, and further clarify process and procedures.

AND WHEREAS the Province and Trustees desire to continue the current trust and not form a new trust.

NOW THEREFORE the Province and the Trustees hereby amend and replace the Original Trust Indenture and subsequent amendments with the following 2024 Trust Indenture:

1.0 INTERPRETATION

1.1 In this Trust Indenture

a) “Beneficiaries” means the following:

- i. the Nova Scotia Nature Trust
- ii. the Nature Conservancy of Canada
- iii. any other charitable, non-governmental, nature conservation land trusts that are designated as eligible bodies pursuant to the Conservation Easement Act, SNS, 2001, c.28;

and “Beneficiary” means any one of the above;

b) “Chair” means the person appointed in article 3.1 of this Indenture and any replacement trustee appointed in her stead under Article 11.1. The Chair provides leadership to the trustees, calls meetings and sets agendas, facilitates consensus-based decisions where possible, leads communications with Beneficiaries and external parties, liaises with the Province and generally ensures the requirements of the Indenture are followed.

c) “Payment” means the one or more payments previously paid by the Province to the Trust. These include:

- i) the Settlement Amount;
- ii) $23,400,000 received in 2008; and
- iii) $20,000,000 received in 2023.

d) “Province” means His Majesty the King in Right of the Province of Nova Scotia as represented by the Ministers of Environment and Climate Change and Natural Resources and Renewables;

e) “Settlement Amount” means Five dollars to be paid by the Province in accordance with this Agreement and settled upon the Trust and forming part of the Trust property;

- f) “Stewardship” in this Trust Indenture meant the ongoing conservation of a secured property’s natural values to IUCN standards for Category I, II or III protected areas, through such activities as monitoring, education, enforcement, ecological restoration, maintenance of boundary lines and signage, payment of property taxes, and management of invasive species and human uses;
- g) “Trust” means the trust established by the Trust Indenture;
- h) “Trustee” means any of the original Trustees and any replacements, substitute or successor trustee appointed under the terms of this Trust Indenture;
- i) “Trust Property” means as of any particular time, any and all assets of the Trust and any and all property of any nature which has been transferred or paid to the Trust, or acquired by the Trust and all income, earnings, profits and gains from the property and any other payments contemplated by this Trust Indenture.

2.0 NAME OF TRUST

The Trust governed by this Indenture is known as the “Nova Scotia Crown Share Land Legacy Trust”.

3.0 APPOINTMENT OF TRUSTEES AND ACCEPTANCE OF TRUST

3.1 Appointment

The Province continues the appointment of the Trustees, Amanda Lavers, Don McNeil and Dale Smith as the Trustees for the Trust under the terms and conditions of this Indenture, and also continues the appointment of Amanda Lavers as Chair.

3.2 Acceptance of Trust

The Trustees hereby accept the trusts in this Indenture and the duties and obligations set out in this Indenture. The Trustees acknowledge receipt of the Settlement Amount from the Province.

3.3 Term of Trustee

Each Trustee shall continue to serve as Trustee until the Trustee’s resignation, incapacity, or removal as provided in this Indenture. New trustees appointed under this indenture shall serve for a term of 5 years, with the option of a single extension of up to 5 years. Trustees will serve for their term or until the Trustee’s resignation, incapacity, or removal as provided in this Indenture.

3.4 Discharge

In the event of the incapacity or resignation of a Trustee, such Trustee shall be fully discharged from all future duties, responsibilities, and liabilities except as otherwise provided in this Indenture.

3.5 Death

In the event of the death of a Trustee, the Trustee's heirs, administrators, executors, and successors shall not be entitled to assume the position of Trustee or to appoint a replacement Trustee and shall be fully discharged from any duties and responsibilities in respect of the Trust as of the date of the death of the Trustee.

3.6 Return of Property on Death

Upon the resignation, death, incapacity, insolvency or removal of a Trustee, the Trustee or the Trustee's representative, as the case may be, shall forthwith deliver to the remaining Trustees all documents, records and property of the Trust.

3.7 Standard of Care

In exercising its powers and performing its responsibilities hereunder, the Trustees shall act honestly and in good faith and shall exercise the same degree of care which a person of ordinary prudence would exercise in dealing with his or her own property.

3.8 Conflict of Interest

A Trustee shall not knowingly permit its interests to conflict with its duties and powers in respect of the Trust. A Trustee will disclose at the first opportunity to the other Trustees in writing or by requesting it to be entered into minutes of any meeting of the Trustees, the nature and extent of any interest the Trustee has in a material contract, transaction or decision, whether made or proposed to be made by the Trustees, if the Trustee is a party to the contract or transaction or may be affected by the decision, is a director or officer, or an individual acting in a similar capacity, of a party to the contract or transaction or that may be affected by the decision. Notwithstanding the foregoing, it is acknowledged that the Trustees may also be members of a Beneficiary organization and such membership shall not be considered a conflict of interest for the purposes of this Trust Indenture so long as, in performing their duties and obligations under this Trust Indenture, the Trustees act at all times with due regard to the purpose of the Trust. New trustees appointed under this indenture will not be members of a Beneficiary organization.

3.9 Limitation of Liability

- (a) The Trustees shall not be liable for any loss to, or diminution of, the Trust resulting from an act or omission in connection with the affairs of the Trust, except to the extent such loss or diminution is directly caused by the Trustee's gross negligence or wilful misconduct.
- (b) The Trustees shall carry liability insurance to protect against any loss, liability or expense (including the costs and expenses of defending against any claim of liability) incurred without gross negligence or willful misconduct by the Trustee and arising out of or in connection with its acting as Trustee under this Indenture. The reasonable costs of such insurance shall be paid out of the Trust Property. The Trustees shall provide the Province with a copy of the current liability insurance policy.

4.0 TRUST PROPERTY

The Province previously transferred the Settlement Amount and paid the Payment to the Trustees in trust for the benefit of the Beneficiaries. The Trustees acknowledge receipt of the funds and agree to maintain the Trust Property in a segregated account separate from other property of the Trustees or any other party, and to provide the Province with the particulars of the account or any changes to the account at any time at the request of the Province.

5.0 PURPOSES OF TRUST

The Trustees shall, and hereby agree to hold the Trust Property in trust, to invest and keep invested the Trust Property until funds are required for disbursement to a Beneficiary for the purpose of securing and protecting high-conservation priority lands in Nova Scotia in accordance with IUCN standards for Category I, II, or III protected areas.

6.0 DISTRIBUTION OF FUNDS TO BENEFICIARIES

6.1 Payments to Beneficiaries

- a) A Beneficiary seeking funds from the Trust must make a funding application and demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Trustees that the funds will be expended for the purpose of the Trust on the securement and protection of high conservation priority lands to IUCN category I, II, or III standards through acquisitions in fee simple or acquisition of interest in lands such as permanent conservation easements or permanent land owner consent to protected area designation.
- b) The Beneficiary must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Trustees that the lands proposed for securement and protection are high priorities for protection on the basis of conservation biology principles and current conservation planning work relevant in the Province of Nova Scotia.
- c) The Beneficiary must demonstrate to the satisfaction of the Trustees how the proposed lands will be secured and protected for the effective long-term in-situ conservation of biodiversity in accordance with IUCN standards for category I, II or III protected areas.
- d) Costs that are eligible to be paid for the Trust Property to secure such lands includes all those costs associated with acquiring the land or interest in the land, including the purchase price, legal fees, surveys, appraisals, and any applicable taxes and at the discretion of the Trustees, costs associated with the establishment of endowment funds for the long-term stewardship of land;
- e) The Trustees shall make payments to Beneficiaries for securement of eligible properties in the following manner:

- i) Up to 50% of the value of the property for an eligible property valued at less than $250,000;
 - ii) Up to 60% of the value of the property for an eligible property valued at $250,000 or more, but less than $1,000,000;
 - iii) Up to 70% of the value of the property valued at $1,000,000 or more.
- f) The Trustees may, at their sole discretion, make additional payments to the Beneficiaries for the establishment of an endowment fund for long-term stewardship of the property. The additional payments may be up to 10% of the fair market value of the property, but in no event will exceed $300,000 per project. To exercise this discretion, the Trustees must be provided with and satisfied by the rationale from the Beneficiary the need for the specific amount of endowment funding requested.
- g) The Trustees shall consider, and in their discretion, may refuse or approve a Funding Application. The Trustees may, in their absolute discretion, completely exclude one or more of the Beneficiaries and nothing contained in the Trust Indenture shall be interpreted as giving any Beneficiary any rights to the Trust Property. The Trustees will notify the Beneficiaries in writing of their determination respecting a payment from the Trust.
- h) In exercising its discretion to refuse or approve a Funding Request, the Trustees may consider:
 - i) other Funding Requests pending or anticipated; or
 - ii) such other criteria as the Trustees consider appropriate to meet the purposes of the Trust.

6.2 (a) The Trustees shall require the Beneficiaries to acknowledge receipt of Trust Property payments made to them and to provide a written report to the Trustees within one year of the award of funds indicating that the subject property has been secured and protected in accordance with the requirements of the Trust. The Trustees shall compile and make public the information contained in such reports.

(b) Should the Trustees not be satisfied that the subject lands have been secured and protected within one year of the award of funds, the Trustees may, at their discretion

- i) grant an extension to the Beneficiary of up to one year to meet the Trustees' requirements for securement and protection of the property to IUCN protected area category I, II, or III standards;

- ii) refuse to consider any further funding requests by the Beneficiary until satisfied that the subject property has been secured and protected in accordance with the requirements of the Trust.

7.0 DUTIES OF TRUSTEES

7.1 Trust Property

The Trustees shall hold title to the Trust Property for the account of the Trust and receive all contributions or other transfer of assets to the Trust made by the Province or other person under this Trust Indenture.

7.2 Use of Trust Property

The Trustees shall only use the Trust Property to fulfil the purpose of the Trust in accordance with the terms and conditions of this Trust Indenture.

7.3 Year End

The Trustees shall choose a fiscal year end for the Trust.

7.4 Investment Policy

The Trustees shall establish a written statement of investment policies and procedures for the Trust and abide by those policies and procedures.

7.5 Investment of Trust Property

The Trustees shall invest the Trust Property in any form of property or security in which a prudent investor might invest, provided the Trustees have due regard to the need for security of principal, liquidity and return on investment, with primary emphasis on security of principal. The Trustees shall diversify the investment of the Trust Property to an extent that is appropriate having regard to the general economic and market conditions.

8.0 POWERS AND AUTHORITIES OF THE TRUSTEES

8.1 The Trustees shall hold title to the Trust Property for the account of the Trust and receive all contributions or other transfers of assets to the Trust made by the Province under this Indenture. The Trustees shall not have power to make any payments out of, or otherwise distribute the Trust Property for any reason or purpose except as specifically provided in this Indenture.

8.2 The Trustees are hereby vested with every power, right and authority necessary or desirable to enable the Trustees to administer the Trust and carry out their responsibilities in accordance with this Trust Indenture. Without in any way limiting the powers, authorities, discretions and immunities otherwise available to trustees, the Trustees shall have the following powers, authorities, discretions and immunities:

- a) To deposit any of the Trust Property in the name of the Trustees in any deposit taking financial institution at the rate of interest from time to time current on similar deposits.
- b) To invest or reinvest any of the Trust Property in accordance with the investment policy of the Trust.

- c) For the purpose of immediately applying the proceeds of any such investments for the purposes of this Indenture, to sell such investments from time to time in their discretion.
- d) To act on the opinion and advice of or information obtained from any lawyer, auditor, accountant or other person or persons with relevant knowledge or expertise, and to employ such assistance as may be necessary to the proper discharge of their duties, and to pay proper and reasonable compensation for all such legal and other advice or assistance from the Trust.
- e) To exercise all rights or entitlements available in connection with any securities held by the Trust.
- f) To execute and deliver agreements, or other instruments required for the administration of the Trust.
- g) To pay all taxes or assessments of whatever kind or nature imposed upon Trustees or the Trust in connection with the Trust Property or any part of it; settle and compromise any dispute tax liabilities and to file any necessary returns and to do all such other acts and things as may be deemed by the Trustees necessary or desirable. The Trustees shall have the power to deduct and remit any taxes which are required by law to be deducted and remitted from any payment made by the Trustees. Any tax payable in relation to income, interest or gains on the investment of the Trust Property may be paid by the Trustees out of the Trust Property. The Trustees shall have power to make any election, designation or allocation available to the Trustees under the provisions of the Income Tax Acts of Canada or Nova Scotia.
- h) To appoint, employ or contract with any person as the Trustees may deem necessary or desirable to fulfill the purpose of the Trust.
- i) To open and operate a bank account or accounts for the purposes of the Trust.
- j) To make, execute, acknowledge and deliver any and all deeds, leases, mortgages, conveyances, contracts, waivers, releases or other documents of transfer and any and all other instruments in writing that may be necessary or proper for the administration of the Trust.
- k) To retain investment advisors, investment managers, brokers or bankers in their absolute discretion for the purpose of investing the Trust Property, which may include the Minister of Finance or staff of the Nova Scotia Department of Finance and Treasury Board, on such terms and conditions as the Trustees may approve.
- l) To pay out of the Trust Property such fees and expenses to agents making investments on behalf of the Trust as may reasonably be required.
- m) To pay from the Trust Property all reasonable and necessary expenses, costs and fees incurred by the Trustees for administering the Trust.
- n) Over the term of the Trust, to pay from the Trust Property up to a maximum of 6% of the Payment amount on all reasonable and necessary expenses, costs, and fees for administering the Trust, including the cost of activities which are directly supportive of the purpose of the Trust. These activities may include ecological inventory or research leading to the identification or prioritization of significant natural areas, public education and outreach activities to encourage and support the participation of landowners in the public and land protection programs, and preparation and implementation of stewardship and management plans.

8.3 The Trustees may transfer all or a portion of the Trust Property to any other trust established by the Province, provided that no transfer shall be permitted which affects the settlement of the funds in the Trust or renders the settlement revocable.

8.4 The Trustees shall only be accountable for reasonable diligence in the management of the Trust and shall not be liable for any act or default on the part of any agent or for having permitted any agent to receive and retain any moneys payable to the Trustees hereunder, but the Trustees shall only be liable for their own wilful acts and defaults.

8.5 None of the provisions of this Indenture shall require the Trustees to expend or risk their own funds or otherwise incur financial liability in the performance of any of their duties or in the exercise of any of their rights or powers unless indemnified.

9.0 PROCEEDINGS OF TRUSTEES

9.01 Remuneration

Trustees shall be entitled to payment of $350 each for each meeting attended by the Trustee to attend to the necessary business of the Trust. Compensation for the Trustees in this regard shall constitute a charge upon the Trust and shall be paid out of the Trust. Trustees are entitled to payment of $250 for each half day spent preparing for each meeting. Reasonable travel expenses incurred to attend meetings shall be also reimbursed. At the option of the Trustee, the Trustee may in writing waive entitlement to remuneration provided in 9;01.

9.02 Meetings

The Trustees shall meet at least four times in each calendar year and may meet at such other times as the Chair considers necessary.

9.03 Notice of Meetings

Any Trustee may, by proper notice, call a meeting of the Trustees. Notice of any meeting of the Trustees shall be delivered, mailed, telecopied, or electronically mailed to the Trustees, not less than seven days before the meeting is to take place, provided always that meeting of the Trustees may be held at any time without formal notice if all Trustees are present in person. Notice of any meeting or any irregularity in any meeting or in the notice thereof may be waived by any Trustee. Every notice shall contain the time and place of any meeting and the general nature of the business to be transacted.

9.04 Meeting Other Than in Person

If all of the Trustees consent, one or more Trustees may participate in a meeting of the Trustees by means of such telephone or other communications facilities as permit all persons participating in the meeting to hear each other and a Trustee participating in such a meeting by such means is deemed to be present for the meeting.

9.05 Votes and Quorum

Three Trustees shall constitute a quorum for a meeting. Each Trustee shall have one vote and a majority of votes determines the outcome. In the rare event of an absence of one of the trustees due to illness, incapacity, death, by removal by cause or insolvency, two trustees shall constitute a quorum. In such a circumstance the voting consensus of the two trustees determines the outcome.

9.06 Procedures

The Trustees may from time to time establish such procedures for the conduct of their business and the business of any committees, as they consider appropriate.

9.07 Execution of Documents

All agreements and other documents to be executed by the Trustees shall after being approved by the Trustees be signed in the manner as approved by a resolution of Trustees and all cheques payable out of the Trust Property shall be signed in the manner approved by resolution of the Trustees.

9.08 Banking Arrangements

All monies received by the Trustees shall be deposited by them in an account maintained in one or more Canadian chartered banks, trust companies or credit unions, as the Trustees may designate for that purpose. All accounts shall be signed only by the Trustees who are from time to time authorized in writing by resolution of the Trustees.

10.0 Resignation of Trustees

A Trustee may resign at any time on giving not less than ninety (90) days' prior written notice to the Province. Such resignation shall only be effective upon the appointment of a successor Trustee by the Province and acceptance of the appointment

11.0 APPOINTMENT AND REMOVAL OF TRUSTEES

11.1 Appointment of Trustees

If a Trustee has given notice of resignation or has been removed, or the Trustee's term has been determined in any manner, the Province shall be entitled to appoint in consultation with the Chair another Trustee in their stead to fulfil the obligations of a Trustee under this Indenture, provided that such Trustee may not be employed by or under the direct or indirect control of the Province. The Province may also appoint a new chair in the event of a vacancy. The Province will appoint replacement Trustees in a timely manner. The Trustees and the Province may develop a process for the identification and recommendation of new trustees.

11.2 Removal for Cause

The Province may remove a Trustee for cause in the event the Trustee breaches any material term of this Indenture or commits a breach of trust.

11.3 Automatic Termination of Trustee

A Trustee shall automatically cease to be a Trustee under this Indenture on the death, incapacity or insolvency of the Trustee.

11.4 Obligation upon Resignation or Removal

In the event of the resignation or removal of the Trustee, the Trustee shall transfer title to all assets comprising the Trust and all books and records maintained by the Trustee for the purpose of its responsibilities under this Trust Indenture to the successor appointed under Article 11.1. Upon such transfer the Trustee shall be relieved and discharged of all responsibilities under this Trust Indenture and any further accounting to the Province or the Beneficiaries with respect to the Trust assets or administration of the Trust.

12.0 VESTING IN SUCCESSOR

Any successor Trustee will become vested with and subject to all the estates, property, rights, powers, duties and obligations of their predecessor in the Trust as if they had been originally named as a Trustee and without the need for any conveyance.

13.0 TRUST NOT DETERMINED

No vacancy of the positions of Trustee caused in any manner shall determine the Trust.

15.0 TRUST IRREVOCABLE

The Trust set out in this Indenture is irrevocable by the Province.

16.0 TERMINATION OF TRUST

The Trust constituted by this Indenture terminates on the earlier of

- a) The date that all Trust Property has been expended; and
- b) March 31, 2031.

17.0 REMAINDER BENEFICIARIES

If at the date of termination of the Trust any Trust Property remains the Trustees shall transfer or pay the funds from the Trust Property to the Nova Scotia Nature Trust and the Nature Conservancy of Canada to be split equally between them and to be expended in accordance with the purposes set out in this Trust Indenture.

18.0 APPLICABLE LAW

This Trust shall be interpreted and be governed by the laws of the Province of Nova Scotia.

19.0 BOOKS AND RECORDS

The Trustees shall keep and maintain complete and accurate books and records and accounts in Halifax, Nova Scotia, with respect to all aspects of the administration of the Trust. These books and records shall be maintained separate from any other books and records maintained by the Trustees and shall, upon reasonable request of the Province, be made available for review and inspection during normal business hours by representatives appointed by the Province for the purpose who may make copies of such books and records as they deem necessary. The Trustees shall also provide to the Province, within a reasonable period of time following receipt of a request for same, such additional information as the Province reasonably requests from time to time.

20.0 REPORTING

20.1 Audited Statement

The Trustees shall make publicly available, within 180 days from the end of each fiscal year of the Trust, an audited statement of financial activity for the Trust for the fiscal year just ended. The Province reserves the right to have an independent third party audit of the Trust.

20.2 General Reporting

The Trustees shall annually, within 180 days from the end of each fiscal year of the Trust provide the Province with a summary of approved projects, and payments made to beneficiaries. Furthermore, an investment statement, any investment policies and procedures developed under clause 7.4, any contracts entered into under clause 8 and the minutes of any meeting held during that year will also be provided.

21.0 GENERAL

21.1 Confidentiality

Subject to the requirements of any applicable law including the Freedom of Information and Protection of Privacy Act (NS), the Trustees will retain all information obtained in relation to the Trust confidential and will not disclose such information to any party, except as provided in this Indenture.

21.2 Amendment

The Province and the Trustees reserve the right at any time and from time to time to amend, in whole or in part, any or all of the provisions of this Indenture by mutual consent provided that no amendment shall be permitted which affects the settlement of the funds in the Trust or renders the settlement revocable.

21.3 Further Assurances

The parties shall, from time to time, at their own cost and expense, execute or cause to be executed all such further documents and/or cause to be done all things which are necessary to give effect to the provisions of this Indenture.

21.4 Severance

If any provision of this Trust Indenture shall be held illegal or invalid for any reason by a Court of competent jurisdiction, such illegality or invalidity shall not affect the remaining provisions of this Indenture, but such illegal or invalid provision shall be severed from this Indenture.

21.5 Counterparts and Delivery

This Indenture may be executed in separate counterparts, each of which when so executed and delivered shall be deemed to be an original and when taken together shall constitute one and the same instrument. Counterpart signatures may be delivered electronically with original signatures to be delivered as soon as possible thereafter.

21.6 Notices

Any notice required or permitted to be given or made pursuant to this Indenture shall be in writing and shall be considered to have been received by the addressee on the date of delivery, if delivered by hand during business hours to any individual representative of a party specified below, or on the following confirmed electronic transmission, if transmitted electronically:
